

Urchin Statistics

Urchin is a web statistics analysis program. Urchin is used to analyze web server log file content and display the traffic information on that website based upon the log data. Urchin is also source of knowledge about website browsers, key words and links used by your visitors.

Access to statistics

Log into Manager v3 and then click "Website hosting" and then "Statistics".
In order to access statistics, provide your nichandle and password.

Language change

To set language for Urchin statistics, Preferences form the menu then choose language and click Submit.